LEVEL 2
SECTION A: POETRY

It Was Long Ago

I'll tell you something, shall I, something I remember?
Something that still means a great deal to me.
It was long ago.

A dusty road in summer I remember,
A mountain, and an old house, and a tree
That stood, you know,

Behind the house. An old woman I remember
In a red shawl with a grey cat on her knee
Humming under a tree.

She seemed the oldest thing I can remember,
But then perhaps I was not more than three.
It was long ago.

I dragged on the dusty road, and I remember
How the old woman looked over the fence at me
And seemed to know

How it felt to be three, and called out, I remember
'Do you like bilberries and cream for tea?'
I went under the tree

And while she hummed, and the cat purred, I remember
How she filled a saucer with berries and cream for me
So long ago,

Such berries and such cream as I remember
I never had seen before, and never see
Today, you know.

And that is almost all I can remember,
The house, the mountain, the grey cat on her knee,
Her red shawl, and the tree,

And the taste of the berries, the feel of the sun I remember,
And the smell of everything that used to be
So long ago,

Till the heat on the road outside again I remember,
And how the long dusty road seemed to have for me
No end, you know.

That is the farthest thing I can remember.

It won't mean much to you. It does to me.
Then I grew up, you see.

LEVEL 2

Read the poem It Was Long Ago printed opposite and answer all the questions below, using complete sentences.

The marks at the end of each question are a guide as to how much you should write in your answers.

Look again at lines 1 to 12.

1. (a) How old was the speaker when this happened? (1)
     (b) Briefly describe what happened. (1)
     (c) How does the poet emphasise the fact that this is a memory from long ago? (2)
         Use quotations from the poem to support your answer.

Look again at lines 13 to 24.

2. How does the use of sound help to make the description vivid in these lines? (4)

Look at lines 25 to 36.

3. (a) What devices does the speaker use to express her strong feelings about this memory in lines 25 to 30? (4)
     (b) How does the mood of the poem change in lines 28 to 36 and how does the speaker make you understand this? (4)

Look at the poem as a whole.

4. What do you notice about the way the stanzas are structured?
   Comment on anything you find interesting. (5)

5. What impressions do you get of ‘the road’ the child is travelling, and what could it represent? (4)
   (25)

PLEASE TURN OVER FOR SECTION B
